

Mary Emeneger Is Early June Bride

of 1723 Elm avenue, Torrance, was given in marriage by her father. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. Charles Wells and the late Mrs. Wells, of 22534 South Vermont avenue, Torrance.

Lovely Blonde Bride

For her wedding the attractive blonde bride wore a gown of rose-patterned lace over satin, the bodice fitted and fashioned with an oval neckline and long pointed sleeves punctuated with tiny satin-covered buttons. The billowing skirt was of white tulle over satin, and she carried pink and white carnations. A Juliet cap encrusted with pearls held the fingertip veil, and the wide neckline of the gown was complimented by a two-strand pearl choker.

Bridal Entourage

Matron of Honor Mrs. Gertrude Bailey, wore an orchid-toned gown of taffeta, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Bridesmaids were Mesdames Betty Goddard and Helen Person, sister of the groom, and they were attired in blue taffeta, also carrying pink carnation bouquets.

James C. Spratt was best man, and ushers were Robert Emeneger, brother of the bride, and Charles Wells, brother of the groom.

Scattering rose petals in her sister's path was Judith Emeneger, flower girl, who wore an orchid-sashed dress of white.

Local Theatre Group to Appear in Santa Monica

ACCENT: Theatre! will make its first out-of-town appearance when the one-act masque, "The Parade at the Devil's Bridge," is presented in competition with other Southern California little theatres at the Pacific Coast Drama Tournament in Santa Monica tonight. Countess Elektra Rozanska of La Canada is in charge of this event at the Miles Playhouse, 1130 Lincoln Blvd., under the sponsorship of the Santa Monica Chamber of Commerce.

Picture Book Set

The task of building a picture-book set and making period costumes for the Henri Gheon play came in the midst of Accent's elaborate preparations for its coming major production, "The Fourposter." This three-act Broadway comedy will be presented June 24, 25, and 26 at the Torrance Woman's Club, 1222 Engracia.

Chief task at the present is the design and execution of appropriate settings for the three-act comedy, which covers a span of thirty-five years—all in a single bedroom.

Mrs. Paul Harestad has designed the basic set and decor, while construction design was done by Herman Boodman of the Greenwood school faculty. Boodman has eight years of little theatre experience behind him.

'Fourposter' Set Complete

Frank Kelley, technical director of "The Fourposter," and his crew completed initial set building last week. He was assisted by Dick Roberts, Bob Adams, Bill Boswell, Mal Sagenkahn, Mrs. Nancy Carpenter, and Mrs. Joan Crane.

Seno-White Nuptials Solemnized Sunday

A second June wedding at Nativity church was seen last Sunday afternoon when Miss Shirley Jeanne White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. White of 2317 Sierra street, became the bride of Angelo Seno, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Seno of 112 W. 220th street. The double ring rite was celebrated by Rev. Patrick McGuinness.

Escorted by Uncle

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, J. C. Morris, and for her wedding she chose a full-length gown of nylon tulle in intricately pleated panels, underlaid with satin, and overlaid with a redingote effect of lace. The bodice was of lace over satin, fashioned with a high neckline and calla-pointed sleeves. A pearl-encrusted tiara held her short tulle veil, and she carried a bouquet of white orchids.

Preceding the bride down the white-carpeted aisle was her cousin, 6-year-old Suzanne Morris, who wore a dress of yellow taffeta overskirted in net.

Another cousin, Mrs. W. A. Gray, served as matron of honor, and wore a pale lavender net waltz length gown. She carried a matching bouquet of carnations. Bridesmaids in deeper shades of lavender were Miss Diane Schumert, Mrs. Alexis Cadongog, and Mrs. J. Burke.

Groom's Attendants

BRIDE-TO-BE . . . Joanne Theriault will be wed to Paul Pietromonico in Santa Maria on June 12. The couple plan to fly to Hawaii for a two-week honeymoon following the nuptials.

Cleo Mortensen to Wed Robert Trumbo on July 3

The engagement of Miss Cleo Alicia Mortensen to Robert Temple Trumbo has been announced by the parents of the bride-to-be, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schwartz of 1203 Felbar avenue.

The benedict-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Trumbo of 1416 Erie street, Chicago. He is employed at Northrup Aircraft.

Both Miss Mortensen and her fiancé attended Chicago schools, and she is presently employed at Torrance Real Estate and Investment company on Post avenue.

The wedding date has been set for July 3 at Nativity Catholic church. Maid of honor will be cousin of the bride, Patricia Ann Rizzo of Chicago, and Edward Welnowski, uncle of the bride, and also of Chicago, will serve as best man.

NATIVITY CHURCH . . . will be the scene of July 3 wedding of Miss Cleo Alicia Mortensen when she becomes the bride of Robert Temple Trumbo.

Thayer-Weeks Rites Celebrated Saturday

Rainbow hues of blue, yellow, and pink, from deep shades to pastel, keyed the bridal entourage at the wedding last Saturday evening of Miss Beverly Ann Weeks and Warren F. Thayer. The candlelight ceremony was performed in the First Church of the Brethren in Long Beach, with the Rev. Bob Richards officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lile L. Weeks of 2650 E. 220th street, Long Beach, and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd C. Thayer of 25831 Narbonne avenue, Lomita.

For the 8 p.m. double ring ceremony, the church was decorated in all white, two huge baskets filled with white chrysanthemums flanking the altar. The bride was escorted by her father down the aisle flanked with white satin ribbon.

Gown Described
For her wedding, the former Miss Weeks chose an all-white gown of lace and nylon tulle. The fitted bodice of lace was fashioned with a scoop-neckline and long pointed sleeves. The bouffant skirt was made up of alternate panels of white lace and tulle underlaid with satin, falling in a graceful chapel train. Iridescent sequins dusted
